PLUTA Restructuring Expert Michael Bremen is the provisional Administrator of the Software Company fidis

23 May 2018 · Düsseldorf, Germany · Business
Area: Insolvency Administration

The attorney Mr Michael Bremen from the restructuring company PLUTA is the provisional insolvency administrator of fidis finanz- und daten-informations services GmbH. The Local Court of Düsseldorf ordered the proceedings on 8 May and appointed the restructuring expert Mr Michael Bremen as the provisional administrator.

The full scope of business operations is being continued, which has been approved by the administrator. At present, the company has a workforce of 13 employees whose salaries are guaranteed thanks to the insolvency substitute benefits.

fidis finanz- und daten-informations services GmbH was founded in the year 2000. The company develops and sells SAP-based (SAP R/3 FI) software for processing data and documents for the factoring and ABS (Asset Backed Securities) business segments of financial service providers on a worldwide scale. The customers are domestic and foreign factoring companies, (savings) banks and major companies.
