Altenberg, Bürgel, Glashütte and Leipzig (two branches) in order to ensure a smooth transition. Negotiations are still ongoing here, but they are expected to be completed in the near future. The branches in Stadtroda and Eisenberg had to be closed.

Ralf Groschupf GmbH is on Expansion Course

Thanks to this transaction, the majority of the existing branches have been saved. For the purchaser, this acquisition is a sensible addition to its existing eleven branches, all of which are located in Chemnitz.

The bakery and confectionary Ralf Groschupf GmbH is a sizable family business, which has been run by the entrepreneur Ralf Groschupf since 1987. Currently, the company has a staff of 69 employees. The present acquisition means that the business location in Hainichen is also secure, as the headquarters of Ralf Groschupf GmbH will in future be located there. The reason for moving the headquarters is that the Bornauer Straße site in Chemnitz has reached its capacity limits with respect to production and logistics. Production conditions are far better in Hainichen thanks to the size and location of the facility.

Ralf Groschupf GmbH is defined by high-quality workmanship, meticulous production and a wider product range than Gellertstadt Bakery had on offer. This means a broad and, in some parts, seasonally varying range of baked goods can be offered to the customers, products which are aimed at being fresh (delivered up to three times a day) and high quality.
