Restructuring Expert Mirko Möllen holds Talks with prospective Investors for the Shipping Company Dusch

4 October 2016 · Munich · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

The provisional insolvency administrator Mr Mirko Möllen from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH is currently in the process of finding an investor for the shipping company Hans Peter Dusch GmbH Transporte und Spedition. Initial talks have already been held.

The company had to file for insolvency in mid-September, whereupon the Local Court of Traunstein appointed Mr Möllen as the provisional insolvency administrator. At present, eleven full-time employees work for Dusch. Business operations were continued without any interruptions, and the company is continuing to execute every order.

“We have obtained a comprehensive overview of the situation that the shipping company is in. At the moment, we are holding talks with potential investors that would like to continue business operations in the future. It is my aim to implement restructuring measures successfully and to save as many jobs as possible,” said Mr Mirko Möllen.

Hans Peter Dusch GmbH Transporte und Spedition is a traditional enterprise, which has been operating in the
