Business magazine names PLUTA among top law firms for 2019

22 August 2019 · Ulm

- Award recognises insolvency law and restructuring competence
- Well-regarded PLUTA restructuring experts recommended
- PLUTA claims first-ever top spot in insolvency statistics in the first half of 2019

WirtschaftsWoche, a leading German business magazine, regularly recognises Germany's best law firms and attorneys in the field of insolvency and corporate restructuring. PLUTA has again been listed as a top law firm in 2019, while five PLUTA restructuring experts have been ranked among the finest legal professionals.

Mr Stefan Meyer, Mr Michael Pluta and Mr Ivo-Meinert Willrodt have been recommended for their expertise as insolvency law practitioners and Mr Steffen Beck and Dr Maximilian Pluta as restructuring attorneys.

The rankings are based on extensive research. The Handelsblatt Research Institute (HRI) asked more than 1,000 legal experts in over 90 law firms to name their best-regarded German colleagues in order to determine the top law firms and attorneys in insolvency law and restructuring. A jury then evaluated the suggestions. It selected 39 law firms and 65 recommended attorneys in the area of insolvency law and 35 law firms and 53 attorneys in the area of restructuring.

“This award truly speaks to the quality of our work. As it is decided upon by colleagues in our own industry, we are all the more delighted that our team has done so well,” commented Mr Michael Pluta, Managing Director and Founder of PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH.

PLUTA has also been very successful in terms of the number of insolvency cases. The relevant German insolvency portal regularly produces company insolvency statistics for Germany. For the first time ever, PLUTA took top spot in the statistics for the first half of 2019, with 155 opened proceedings. PLUTA also led the rankings in insolvency monitoring, with 16 proceedings.
