11 August 2021 · Koblenz

Mrs Anna Bodner has completed her three-year paralegal apprenticeship at PLUTA with excellent results. The 28-year-old, who is based in PLUTA's Koblenz branch office, has ranked in the top three trainees in the higher regional court district of Koblenz. Mrs Bodner works in insolvency administration, supporting case handlers and administrators.

The examination was administered by the local bar association. Mrs Bodner achieved a maximum score of 100 points in two areas. Her overall result was 94 points. This meant she graduated first in her year in Koblenz. Throughout the higher regional court district, which encompasses the regional court districts of Bad Kreuznach, Koblenz, Mainz and Trier, the PLUTA employee emerged as one of the top three graduates.

PLUTA attaches great importance to the dual training system and offers apprenticeships in several professions at various locations. The company provides excellent development opportunities for employees through its training programme. Attorney Mrs Sylvia Kalbitzer, who heads up the Koblenz branch, said, "We offer our junior staff a varied training programme. Our trainees can take on a wide range of activities. This pays off. You have to be an attractive employer if you wish to retain employees in the long term."
