PLUTA now has a Network Partner in South Africa

11 July 2016 · Ulm

PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH now has in Matuson & Associates a competent partner in South Africa. PLUTA has been operating internationally for many years, having their own branch offices abroad in Italy, Spain and Poland as well as collaborating with the BTG Global Advisory network. In addition to Europe, America, Asia and Australia, PLUTA now also has a BTG partner in the African continent active in the areas of insolvency administration and restructuring. This means that companies looking for someone to represent their interests in South Africa now have a local contact and benefit from the smooth collaboration offered by the cross-country network. The headquarters of the law firm Matuson & Associates are located in Johannesburg.

The company was founded in 2009 and is one of the leading specialists in the area of restructuring in South Africa. Above all in the areas of retail trade, cars, real estate and raw materials, Matuson & Associates can look back on a large number of successful cases. In total, Matuson & Associates is the ninth law firm to join the BTG Global Advisory international network.
