PLUTA opens a new Branch Office in Singen

20 October 2015 · Singen

The PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH is growing and has opened their 42nd branch office in Singen (Baden-Württemberg). The company focuses on restructuring and turning around enterprises, on insolvency administration and legal advice. Branch manager of the southernmost PLUTA office in Germany is Mr. Florian Martin Schiller, LL.M. (SUN). The attorney and law graduate previously worked at the PLUTA branches in Ulm and Bayreuth and can negotiate not only in English, but also in French and Norwegian. Moreover, since Mr. Schiller was the managing director of a South African company for several years, he can also speak Afrikaans.
