PLUTA wins European CEO Award 2015

18 September 2015 · Ulm

PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has won the European CEO Award 2015 in the “Best Insolvency Advisors” category. The prize for this category was awarded for the first time this year. PLUTA was given this award in recognition of its exceptional expertise in this field.

“The international prize is a reflection of the excellent services provided by our partners, insolvency administrators, restructuring experts and staff, both in Germany and abroad. This recognition gives us an incentive to continue on our successful course,” commented Mr. Michael Pluta, Managing Director and Founder of the law firm.

The prize is awarded annually by the internationally renowned magazine “European CEO”, based in London. First of all, the winners from a wide range of industries had to go through an independent, preliminary selection process. According to “European CEO”, these prize winners are established players in their own core markets and have met high quality standards in their sector for many years. When selecting the prize winner, the jury took a large number of criteria into account. Factors such as corporate structure, customer / client care and sustainability were included in the selection process. In the previous year, the winners included such companies as Norton Rose Fulbright in the “Best Tax Firm” category and Dentons in
