He specialises in advising medium-sized companies in special situations, for example in relation to distressed M&A, distressed due diligence, going concern issues, stakeholder management and mediation of stakeholder conflicts.

In the past few years, he has not only coordinated numerous projects in the automotive supplier industry but also played an active role in the discussion and formulation of solutions in the context of the accelerating transformation in that sector – most recently as an advisory board member for a platform established by the IG Metall and IG BCE trade unions.

Mr Bernd Richter also sits on the advisory boards of a number of medium-sized businesses, in which capacity he often assumes a moderating role in the succession process.

“The move to PLUTA is an exciting challenge given the company’s impressive development to date. I want to use my expertise and network to help shape PLUTA’s expansion strategy. With so many companies undergoing a transformation, I am anticipating interesting advisory mandates over the years ahead,” stated Mr Bernd Richter.

Dr Maximilian Pluta said, “We’ve known Mr Bernd Richter for many years. He is a proven restructuring specialist and an experienced mediator in difficult situations. We are delighted to add such a top-class expert to our ranks at PLUTA. Our entire team will benefit as a result.”
